

London Midland's New Commercial Director Appointed

Dear colleague

I am pleased to announce that Richard Brooks has been appointed the new Commercial Director of London Midland.

He has been acting Commercial Director since early January of this year and he will take up his new role with immediate effect.

Many of you have already met him at various meetings and events he has attended on behalf of London Midland. A lifelong railwayman, Richard brings a wealth of experience and expertise to our industry and to London Midland in particular.

I am sure that you will join me in wishing him well in his new role.

Kind Regards
