Stakeholder update

Thursday 5 June 2014

With nine weeks to go, the industry is in full preparation for the second phase of the Watford Area Renewals Programme when the Euston line will be closed for three weekends in August.

The dates of these closures are:

Saturday 9 August – Monday 11 August

Saturday 16 August – Monday 18 August

Saturday 23 August – Tuesday 26 August

During the May bank holiday closure, Network Rail upgraded signalling equipment and completed various works in preparation for the August closures.

Following various review meetings about the May closure, the industry is reflecting feedback from customers and stakeholders in its plans for August.

Progress for August:

- London Midland's train planning team are now finalising the train and bus plans for the weekends
- Posters and leaflets are currently being designed by London Midland, Network Rail and other affected train operators. London Midland is working with its sister operators Southern and South Eastern to get the message out to passengers south of the river.
- On-going customer service preparation for the three weekends including staff briefings and signage
